Have you a note about the Franklin Statue — I have one — I think, however, I can suggest one for whom you can buy. Yes, Fillmer, Trubner & C.o. or R. H. Lee & Co. Cornhill — The last one I have sold at auction brought £9.10 — It is quite scarce —

Yours truly, W. F. K. L.

Messrs. Chapman:

Gentlemen —

I regret that illness and delay of my friends in returning pieces has held your medals back so long. I now return of the first lot the following numbers.

No. 4, 2.50

No. 6 1.50.

No. 7, 1.50

No. 9, 1.00

No. 10, 4.00

No. 13, 50.00

No. 14, 10.00

No. 19, 25.

No. 20/ 1.00

No. 23, 2.50. Returned from Paris.

14.25

Total, #74.25. Amount of First Invoice, $104.50. Leaving balance to be accounted for of $30.25. Of this I sent you in March last $6.00. I also sent you Mr. Haigh's checks amount of which I have mislaid, but my book-keeper has it, and it is put away; being a holiday, I have come in to close it, but she is not here, so I cant tellthe exact amount. I enclose my check for $10. 00, and if you will advise me what he sent, I will remit any balance due.

Of the second Invoice I have sold Nos. 2, 6, 7, and 10, amounting to $2.05. The others I am quite confident will be taken, by the party who has them, but I cant tell for a few days yet.

There is still therefore a small balance due you, but I cant adjust it to-day for reason above; on hearing how you make it stand will close it out.

I have showed the Washington to a number of parties. Gen. Lw Lawrence, who bought the Poillon collection has two, I find, but neither are as good as yours; still having two, he does not care to buy a third at the price. I showed it to Mr. Appleton; he has it, but not quite so good, and he is satisfied with his; he does not think smooth edge is unique, and thinks price too high; but as he does not want to buy, that wont influence you. I tried very hard to get neigh to buy it, but while he is abundantly able, he either thought I wanted to make something out of him, or else the price scared him: if you desire to make him a better offer you have his address, and if not, I will be pleased to send it to you. I have also showed it to Mr. Willey, a masonic collector, and to others, but they were unable to put so much into one piece.

As to the silver Prussian piece, I have already written you on that. Harzfeld had too high a price, and beside, the price I paid him was in exchange for other medals at my price, so it did not cost me near that. It is a fine impression.

I offered to send you sheets of my supplement, as far as done, if you would like them; I do not recollect whether you cared for te them; if not sent, you are still welcome to them.

Yours Truly

W. H. Woodin

Messrs. Chapman:

Thank you for the check received to-day; I enclose a receipted bill. I am sorry that I can give you but few names of the Masonic collectors about here. Mr Benjamin W. Rowell, addressat the Masonic Temple, Boston) has a fine collection, which he dont say much about; if you write him, be sure not to mention me. Mr. W. Lithgow Willey, 17 West Cedar St. also has a good collection, and occasionally buys. These are all in Boston, except the Grand Lodge, and Gen. S.C. Lawrence, for which Mr. Emmons is constantly buying. He has carte blanche from the General, and imports all the new foreign ones. It would be useless for youto write him, I fear, as he is all the time talking to me for recommending you; he has some old grievance about a Washington, which he told me he bought as unique, at a high price, and found he had it, with which your house was some way connected; I cant say just what he told me, as it was sometime ago, but he never comes in to my office without expressing some bitterness towards you and me, which is not very "ha-pifying" as the Methodists say.

Very Truly Yours,

W. T. R. Marvin
